Friends Forever on the Nintendo 3DS: “Me & My Pets 3D”

The new Nintendo 3DS™ game from TREVA Entertainment in the Nintendo eShop, lets players organise an optimum care programme for large and small pets. Challenging tasks and many different kinds of animals await young animal lovers in this pet care simulation.

Hamburg, 10th July 2014 – TREVA Entertainment GmbH publishes “Me & My Pets 3D”, a pet care simulation for the Nintendo 3DS. Horses, dogs, cats, rabbits, guinea pigs, birds and even fish are entrusted into the loving care of the young players.

The animals need a great deal of attention and as a significant part of this, the player has to put together an individually tailored optimum care and training programme for each of the pet hotel’s residents. So the young hotel managers have to make sure that every possible need of their four-legged guests is met, which means that these animal lovers can stroke and pamper their pets, offer them comfortable lodgings and entertain them with fun mini-games. They can be taught all sorts of little tricks and be spoiled with luxury treats and some lovely decorative items – anticipating their every need and desire. Fantastic extras are awarded for every task that is particularly well completed and these can make the animal hotel a real jewel.

The players do not only have to keep an eye on the individual needs of each animal, they should also keep on upgrading their enclosures. To help with this the nearby store offers food, medicine, toys and accessories for all of the pets. This is also where collected Play Coins can be exchanged. To move through the extensive game environment “Me & My Pets 3D” supports the use of the Nintendo 3DS Circle Pad; however when players mount up for a ride-out on their very own horse the gyroscopic movement control is used. They can also test their skills to conquer the varied obstacle course.

So that all of the different kinds of animals remain contented and have sufficient space, the property is continually extended. With the increasing number of animal guests, the stables, enclosures, aviaries and aquariums grow too.

A special extra is the 3D photo feature: This lets you take your own 3D picture and then use it in the game. Upgrading, feeding, giving treats, playing, petting, caring, going walkies, going on ride-outs and plenty more in “Me & My Pets 3D” means that boredom doesn’t get a look in!
